Bitcoin Depot Reports Second Quarter 2025 Financial Results

Q2 Revenue up 6% Year-Over-Year to $172.1 Million

Q2 Net Income up 183% Year-Over-Year to $12.3 Million

Q2 Gross Profit up 32% Year-Over-Year to $30.9 Million

Q2 Adjusted EBITDA up 46% Year-Over-Year to $18.5 Million

ATLANTA – August 12, 2025 –Bitcoin Depot Inc. (Nasdaq: BTM) (“Bitcoin Depot” or the “Company”), a U.S.-based Bitcoin ATM operator and leading fintech company, today reported financial results for the second quarter ended June 30, 2025. Bitcoin Depot will host a conference call and webcast at 10:00 a.m. ET today. An earnings presentation and link to the webcast will be made available at ir.bitcoindepot.com.

“Bitcoin Depot delivered another strong quarter, with 6% revenue growth and a 46% increase in Adjusted EBITDA to $18.5 million,” said Brandon Mintz, Founder and CEO of Bitcoin Depot. “Our performance demonstrates the operating leverage in our business, driven by kiosk expansion, higher transaction volumes, and disciplined cost management. As a result, we significantly improved profitability, with net income more than tripling year-over-year, and further strengthened our balance sheet. With nearly $60 million in cash and digital assets, we are well-positioned to capitalize on growth opportunities, both in the U.S. and internationally. Looking ahead, we remain focused on scaling efficiently and delivering sustained value for our customers and shareholders.”

“In addition to our financial progress, we’ve taken meaningful steps to further strengthen our operations and enhance shareholder alignment. We eliminated our former UP-C corporate structure to simplify our governance and improve transparency, and continued to strategically add Bitcoin to our treasury. These actions reflect our long-term commitment to responsible growth, prudent capital allocation, and building a stronger, more shareholder-friendly company.”

Second Quarter 2025 Financial Results

Revenue in the second quarter of 2025 increased 6% to $172.1 million compared to $163.1 million in the second quarter of 2024. This increase was driven by increased kiosk deployment and higher median transaction size.

Total operating expenses declined 9% to $17.0 million for the second quarter of 2025 compared to $18.8 million for the second quarter of 2024 due to lower depreciation, insurance and share-based compensation expenses as the Company continues to optimize its cost structure as a steady-state public company.

Net income for the second quarter of 2025 increased 183% to $12.3 million compared to $4.4 million for the second quarter of 2024. Net income attributable to common shareholders increased to $6.1 million, or $0.16 per share, from a net loss of $2.6 million, or ($0.13) per share, in last year’s second quarter. The increase was due to higher revenue and income from operations in 2025, as well as a $2.3 million mark-to-market gain on the Company's BTC investment holdings.

Gross profit in the second quarter of 2025 increased 32% to $30.9 million from $23.4 million for the second quarter of 2024. Gross profit margin in the second quarter of 2025 increased approximately 360 basis points to 17.9% compared to 14.3% in the second quarter of 2024.

Adjusted EBITDA, a non-GAAP measure, in the second quarter of 2025 increased 46% to $18.5 million compared to $12.7 million for the second quarter of 2024. The increase was primarily due to the higher revenue and gross profit. Please see “Explanation and Reconciliation of Non-GAAP Financial Measures” below.

Cash, cash equivalents, and cryptocurrencies as of June 30, 2025, were $59.6 million compared to $31.0 million at the end of 2024. The company used $0.6 million in the second quarter of 2025 to acquire 6.00 more Bitcoin, bringing the total held for investment to 100.35 BTC.

Net cash flows provided by operations in the first six months of 2025 were $26.4 million compared to $11.5 million in the first six months of 2024.

Outlook

The Company expects revenue in the third quarter of 2025 to grow high-single digits on a percentage basis from the third quarter of 2024, and Adjusted EBITDA to be 20% to 30% above the prior year quarter.

Explanation and Reconciliation of Non-GAAP Financial Measures

Bitcoin Depot reports its financial results in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“GAAP”). This press release includes both historical and projected Adjusted EBITDA, Adjusted Gross Profit, and certain ratios and other metrics derived therefrom such as Adjusted EBITDA margin and Adjusted Gross Profit margin, which are not prepared in accordance with GAAP.

Bitcoin Depot defines Adjusted EBITDA as net income before interest expense, income tax expense, depreciation and amortization, non-recurring expenses, share-based compensation, expenses related to the PIPE financing and miscellaneous cost adjustments. Such items are excluded from Adjusted EBITDA because these items are non-cash in nature, or because the amount and timing of these items is unpredictable, not driven by core results of operations and renders comparisons with prior periods and competitors less meaningful. In addition, Bitcoin Depot defines Adjusted Gross Profit (a non-GAAP financial measure) as revenue less cost of revenue (excluding depreciation and amortization) and depreciation and amortization adjusted to add back depreciation and amortization. Bitcoin Depot believes Adjusted EBITDA and Adjusted Gross Profit each provide useful information to investors and others in understanding and evaluating Bitcoin Depot’s results of operations, as well as provide a useful measure for period-to-period comparisons of Bitcoin Depot’s business performance. Adjusted EBITDA and Adjusted Gross Profit are each key measurements used internally by management to make operating decisions, including those related to operating expenses, evaluate performance and perform strategic and financial planning. However, you should be aware that Adjusted EBITDA and Adjusted Gross Profit are not measures of financial performance calculated in accordance with GAAP and may exclude items that are significant in understanding and assessing Bitcoin Depot’s financial results, and further, that Bitcoin Depot may incur future expenses similar to those excluded when calculating these measures. Bitcoin Depot primarily relies on GAAP results and uses both Adjusted EBITDA and Adjusted Gross Profit on a supplemental basis. Neither Adjusted EBITDA or Adjusted Gross Profit should be considered in isolation from, or as an alternative to, net income, cash flows from operations or other measures of profitability, liquidity or performance under GAAP and may not be indicative of Bitcoin Depot’s historical or future operating results. Bitcoin Depot’s computation of both Adjusted EBITDA and Adjusted Gross Profit may not be comparable to other similarly titled measures computed by other companies because not all companies calculate such measures in the same fashion. As such, undue reliance should not be placed on such measures.

Due to the high variability and difficulty in making accurate forecasts and projections of some of the information excluded from the projections of Adjusted EBITDA, together with some of the excluded information not being ascertainable or accessible, Bitcoin Depot is unable to quantify certain amounts that would be required to be included in the most directly comparable GAAP financial measures without unreasonable effort. Consequently, no disclosure of estimated comparable GAAP measures is included and no reconciliation of the forward-looking non-GAAP financial measures is included.
